I'd Buy That For A Dollar!

The on-going textual struggle for Austin Rich's soul! Join him as he muses about cute girls and obscure music! Witness as he assembles collages only inmates can relate to! Tremble as he tries to make sense of it all. # 1 - #5, #7 - #14 Available. $1.00 Each

Plasma Whore

This low-tech production full of dissertations on being single & drunk in Portland are, to quote Mr. Beer Powered Bicycle, "Punk As Fuck." Written by PBR, even the show reviews are timeless. #1 - #7 Send Two Stamps For Each Issue Desired (That's it.)

Ramen City, U.S.A.

This is probably the best 'zine I've ever read, written by the Ramen City Kid. Wise beyond his years each issue offers his unique perspective on dreams, music, eastern Europe and cute pups. Totally required if you're a Eugene resident. #1 - #15. Send Two Stamps For Each Issue Desired (That's it.)

Huevos Rancheros

McFly ponders cute girls, nerd-rock, alcohol and other important things in his text-heavy, hilarious matter-of-fact style. A must for keeping up with the dork-rock elite. #1 & #2 Available. $1.00 Each.

I and I

"I and I" is written by DogBite, the only rastafarian, punk rock, Latino, skinheadish, Communist, cracker Blazer Fan I know that's in the Navy (and not in the Village People sense, but honestly, he is in the Navy).

#1 Available. Send $1.00

Mall

A one-shot mini-zine about the trials & tribulations of working at Gateway Mall (by G.M.). Send A Stamp. (That's it.)

Cigarette

A one-shot production about how Austin Rich quit smoking, with musings and text edited from his apparently-too-personal journal. Send $1

Kings

Written by The Ramen City Kid. Various concepts concerning the ideas of kings and rulers. Send A Stamp. (That's it.)

Unnilhexium

Written by The Ramen City Kid. A collage-type production with outer-spacy, science type themes. Beautiful! Send A Stamp. (That's it.)

Radom

Written by The Ramen City Kid while in the city of Radom in Poland. Send A Stamp. (That's it.)

Cap Gun Suicide

Written by The Ramen City Kid. Variations on the a futurist theme. Very eastern inspired. Neat. Send A Stamp. (That's it.)

Bob's Imagination

In 1993 I edited four collections of student writing from Cottage Grove High School. Primitive and poorly financed, this was where I first got my start in writing and 'zine production. I have limited quantities of each issue and when they sell out (or when I finally get up off my ass and get it ready) I plan to collect them all in one volume. Until then they are available here. Find out what I was doing in the beginning. Scary.
#1 - #4 Available. $2.00 Each.

Bob's Annex

While I was editing Bob's Imagination the magazine was being supervised by a teacher who ended up cutting and censoring a lot of student writing that was intended for publication. Bob's Annex was an attempt to feature the censored material. Eventually I plan to collect these in one volume as well. #1 & #3 Available. $1.00 Each

Neutered Prunes "Rock 'N' Roll & Sauerkraut." CD

This CD is a 12 song frolic through the tattered landscapes of Kiisu D'salyss's mind as he copes with life in Reno, NV. Kiisu is ex-vocalist of Cathead, who now exhibits a King Missile-ish approach to music with such hits as, "Who Shot Elvis," "War Ensemble (Down Home Mix)," and, "Cartoon Music For Criminals." The album is a good old fashioned romp through the world of modern cultural flotsam & jetsam. Don't delay! Order today! $6, and that includes shipping & handling. What a deal! Limited Supplies.

Y3K Emergency Air Packet Act now! Supplied are limited! $1.00 per packet.
